

PEE-YEW!
TAKE A WHIFF OF THIS FLOWER!

The titan arum is called the “Corpse Flower” because it smells like a decomposing animal. This smelly flower is native to the tropical rain forests of Sumatra, Indonesia. Luckily, it only releases the disgusting odor when it blooms, about every six years.

That’s a fact, Jack!