

Directions: Cut out the Tortilla story sequencing sentences. Arrange the sentences in the order as they occurred in the story. Glue the sentences onto a sentence strip or a long sheet of paper. Make sure the sentences are in order before you glue them down.

This is the child that ate the tortilla that was made from the masa that was ground from the corn that grew on the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.

This is the farmer.

This is the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.

This is the masa that was ground from the corn that grew on the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.

This is the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.

This is the corn that grew on the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.

This is the seed the farmer planted.

This is the tortilla that was made from the masa that was ground from the corn that grew on the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.

Answer Key
Tortilla* Sequencing Sentences

1. This is the farmer.
2. This is the seed the farmer planted.
3. This is the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.
4. This is the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.
5. This is the corn that grew on the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.
6. This is the masa that was ground from the corn that grew on the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.
7. This is the tortilla that was made from the masa that was ground from the corn that grew on the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.
8. This is the child that ate the tortilla that was made from the masa that was ground from the corn that grew on the plant that grew from the sprout that grew from the seed the farmer planted.

Directions: Cut out the Tortilla sequencing pictures. Arrange the pictures in the order as they occurred in the story. Glue the pictures onto a sentence strip or a long sheet of paper. Make sure the pictures are in order before you glue them down.

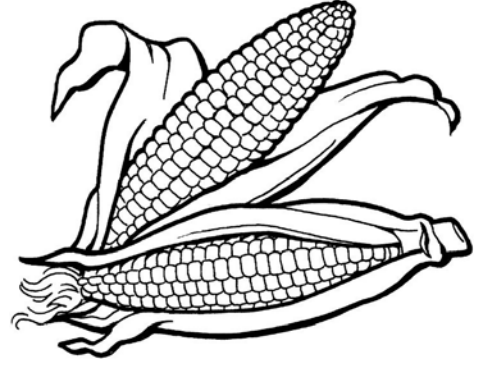

Name _____

Date _____

www.mightybook.com

Corn Clues

Read the sentence clue in Column A. Then, find the answer to the clue from Column B. Write the answer in the space beside each clue.

Column A

Column B

1. _____ This is a person who plants, grows and harvests crops.

growing

2. _____ These are tiny things that grow into corn plants.

eat it

3. _____ This is what the farmer did with the corn seeds.

tortillas

4. _____ This is where the farmer plants the corn seeds.

masa

5. _____ This is what shoots up from the corn seeds.

farmer

6. _____ This is what the farmer did to keep the corn plants healthy.

planted

7. _____ This is what the corn plants are doing when they are getting bigger.

corn seeds

8. _____ This is the name for corn that has been ground up.

watered

9. _____ This is a yummy flat bread that is made from milled corn.

in the ground

10. _____ This is what you do with a tortilla.

sprouts

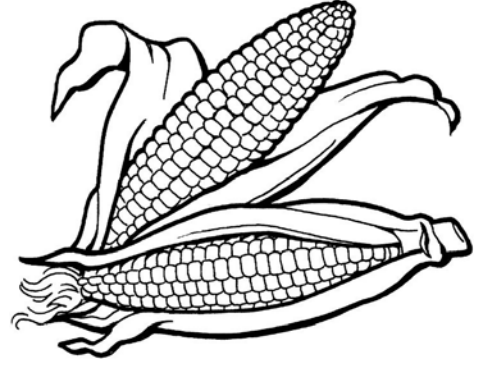

Name _____

Date _____

www.mightybook.com

Corn Clues

Answer Key

Column A

Column B

1. farmer This is a person who plants, grows and harvests crops.
2. corn seeds These are tiny things that grow into corn plants.
3. planted This is what the farmer did with the corn seeds.
4. in the ground This is where the farmer plants the corn seeds.
5. sprouts This is what shots up from the corn seeds.
6. watered This is what the farmer did to keep the corn plants healthy.
7. growing This is what the corn plants are doing when they are getting bigger.
8. masa This is the name for corn that has been ground up.
9. tortillas This is a yummy flat bread that is made from milled corn.
10. eat it This is what you do with a tortilla.

- growing
- eat it
- tortillas
- masa
- farmer
- planted
- corn seeds
- watered
- in the ground
- sprouts