

Name _____

Date _____

Fabulous Frogs
QUIZ

1. What type of animal is a frog?
 - a. inanimate
 - b. octagon
 - c. vertebrate
 - d. primate

2. Frogs are part of what order of animals.
 - a. mammals
 - b. amphibians
 - c. reptiles
 - d. arachnids

3. How do frogs get water into their bodies?
 - a. lap it up with their long tongue
 - b. suck it in through their nostrils
 - c. open their mouth and let it flow in
 - d. absorb it through their skin

4. How do adult frogs breathe?
 - a. They absorb air through their skin and breathe with lungs.
 - b. They breathe through their gills under water.
 - c. They use their long tongue to suck in air through the mouth.
 - d. They take in air by making a bubble with their chin.

5. Frogs that live in trees have what special feature?
 - a. stronger back legs for jumping onto high limbs
 - b. the ability to spin a web to climb on
 - c. sticky pads on their feet to help them stick to limbs
 - d. claws for gripping the tree trunk

6. Why do some frogs have very bright colors?
 - a. so people can see them and not step on them
 - b. to help attract a mate
 - c. so they will blend in with colorful flowers
 - d. to warn predators that they are poisonous or bad tasting

7. What do frogs eat?
 - a. fruits, nuts and vegetables
 - b. earthworms, insects, spiders, minnows and other frogs
 - c. grass, leaves, flowers and twigs
 - d. algae and pond scum

8. How do frogs eat?
 - a. swallow their prey whole
 - b. bite and chew their food
 - c. drinking liquids
 - d. absorb nutrients through their skin

9. Where do frogs live?
 - a. only in North America and South America
 - b. only in the United States and Mexico
 - c. on every continent except Antarctica
 - d. on every continent except Asia and Australia

10. What are baby frogs called?
 - a. scalliwags
 - b. tadpoles
 - c. ribbits
 - d. tidbits